
The management team of the Raiffeisen Privatbank Liechtenstein is to be strengthened

Arzu Tschütscher-Alanyurt is the new CFO of the Raiffeisen Privatbank Liechtenstein AG

Vaduz, 30th January 2019 - The administrative board of the Raiffeisen Privatbank Liechtenstein AG has subject to approval by the Financial Market Authority (FMA), appointed Mag. Arzu Tschütscher-Alanyurt to the post of Chief Financial Officer (CFO). She is herewith strengthening the current management team of the Raiffeisen Privatbank Liechtenstein, Dr. Alexander Putzer (CEO) and Dr. Georg Stöckl (COO).

Arzu Tschütscher-Alanyurt is an economist who has many years of experience in national as well as international financial- and risk management. Following positions in Vienna, Berlin and London, Arzu Tschütscher-Alanyurt was engaged in a number of positions in the financial sectors of Liechtenstein and Switzerland. She is currently also a member of the administrative board of the Telecom Liechtenstein AG, is on the board of trustees for the Stiftung Zukunft.li as well as a board member of the Institute for Financial Services Zug (IFZ), part of the University of Lucerne.

With the expansion of the management group, the Raiffeisen Privatbank Liechtenstein is setting itself up for the growth associated with the further internationalisation of the business. Through the further investment in the bank in Liechtenstein, which is the driving force for its Wealth Management strategy, the proprietor, the Mason Group is sending out a clear message.

--

Steeped in tradition, Raiffeisen Privatbank Liechtenstein AG is one of the top addresses for private banking in the German-speaking countries of Europe. The multi-award-winning bank specialises in high-net-worth investors with liquid investable assets of over 250,000 Swiss francs and provides support to independent asset managers. The bank has 1,066.1 million Swiss francs in customer assets under management (as of 31 December 2017).